

City Choir Elite Donor Category: 2023-24 Season Underwriters

Definition:

A “season underwriter” individual or couple signs a committed pledge form by December 31, 2023 offering an unrestricted infusion of new money at the $5,000 level or above to be paid between July 1, 2023 and June 30, 2024. Half-underwriterships are also available, with a pledge of $2,500. This contribution is not based on cumulative giving for the past year or year and a half, as we do when we list donors in our concert program booklets. It’s an annual injection of new revenue that we can count on when we budget and plan our seasons.

Information and pledge form may be downloaded and completed on our website www.citychoir.org under the Support tab. They may also be obtained from Barbara Greene, Season Underwriter Liaison to the Board, reachable at essexroad@aol.com

Benefits:

- Special and frequent recognition in City Choir communications and concert program booklets throughout the 2023-24 season;
- Direct link to constantly updated list of season underwriters on our website;
- Two free subscriptions to our four-concert 2023-24 series [Note: value is not tax-deductible]. For half-underwriters donating $2,500, one free subscription is offered;
- An invitation to an annual Gathering of the Season Underwriters with Erin Freeman and her spouse, Drew Cahoon. In recent years, this has typically been a late afternoon dinner buffet on a Sunday afternoon in a private space at the Annapolis Yacht Club.
- Invitations to other exclusive meet and greet events, including post-concert receptions, as they arise, at no additional cost to you. These are often at private homes or other prestigious venues with Maestra Freeman, concert artists, board members, and a limited number of others equally committed to the financial well being of the City Choir of Washington;
- A dedicated season underwriter liaison to the City Choir Board of Directors as advocate, and also your contact person for all special events;
- The heartfelt appreciation you will receive from our artistic director, staff, and large cadre of highly experienced volunteer singers who come from a broad geographic area to be part of our City Choir family.
